

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A PRO SE DIVORCE WITH CHILDREN

PLEASE READ:

- PLEASE REVIEW THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY AND FILL OUT THE APPROPRIATE FORMS. For all forms that are to be notarized, please have them notarized before filing with the clerk.
- An “Uncontested” divorce means that you and your spouse agree on ALL of the terms and conditions of the divorce, including property settlement, financial support, etc.
- A “Contested” divorce means that you and your spouse DO NOT AGREE on all of the terms and conditions, therefore, you and your spouse MUST ATTEND MEDIATION WITH THE ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROGRAM BEFORE OBTAINING A COURT DATE. (An instruction packet for mediation procedures can be obtained at the clerk’s office).
- PLEASE READ THROUGH THIS ENTIRE PACKET AT LEAST ONE TIME BEFORE COMPLETING ANY OF THE PAPERWORK. MANY QUESTIONS CAN BE ANSWERED JUST BY CAREFULLY REVIEWING THE INSTRUCTIONS.

NO AUTHORITY TO GIVE LEGAL ADVICE

State law, O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51, prohibits court personnel (including staff attorneys or law clerks, calendar clerks, clerk’s office staff, and sheriff’s department staff) from giving legal advice or answering legal questions.

USE THESE FORMS AT YOUR OWN RISK

In no event will the Clerk of Court, Court Administrator or anyone contributing to the development of these forms or instructions be liable for any damages resulting from the use of this packet. These forms may not be appropriate for your particular case. In addition, due to the changing nature of the law, the information in these instructions and forms may be or become outdated. You should review any statutes (laws) mentioned in this packet to make sure the forms are current. It is strongly recommended that you obtain the services of an attorney.

IMPORTANT

Note that forms provided here must each be filed separately with the court clerk. Do NOT file the forms in this packet together as a single document. Each form should be filed SEPARATELY.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING THIS PETITION FOR DIVORCE

This form packet is for people who want to file their own divorce in the Griffin Judicial Circuit, and who have minor children together with their spouse. If you and your spouse do not have minor children together, you should not use this form packet. Instead, use the shorter and simpler version called Petition for Divorce Without Minor Children

Please read these instructions and each form very carefully. Missing or misreading a word could cause you to make serious errors in your case, placing your rights and the direction of your divorce case in jeopardy. Please also note this packet does not cover every legal issue that may come up in a divorce. Whether your case is contested or uncontested, to protect your legal rights, it is always recommended that you speak with an attorney experienced in domestic relations (family law) before signing or filing any documents. Even if you have no marital property or joint debt, you may especially need to hire an attorney to represent you if:

- An attorney represents your spouse.
- You are a victim of family violence against you by your spouse.
- You are unable to locate your spouse to have him/her served with this action.
- You want an arrangement for custody or visitation that does not exactly fit these forms.
- You and your spouse have a house, pension, or large amounts of property or income to be divided.
- You think you may have difficulty getting financial information from your spouse.

I. INTRODUCTION

In the State of Georgia, if you want to end your marriage, you must file a Petition for divorce in the Superior Court. There are two options available to you for filing a divorce case: (1) you can hire a lawyer who will prepare your paperwork and represent you in court; or (2) you can use the forms included in this packet and represent yourself in court (referred to as “Pro Se”). After a court grants your divorce and issues a final judgment and decree of divorce, you will be legally able to remarry.

It is advisable to speak with a lawyer before filing any action with the court. This divorce is no exception to that rule. There are often more issues involved in a divorce than you might realize if you fail to get legal advice. However, you may want to review the forms and instructions in this packet before you talk to a lawyer, so that you will be able to make the best use of your time with the lawyer.

Dissolution of a marriage can be a very complicated process. If documents are not completed, signed, notarized and filed in compliance with the law, then a judge cannot grant your request for divorce and may dismiss your case.

If you want a court to grant your divorce, you must follow the law and you must complete each and every paragraph that applies to your case (but not any paragraphs that do not apply to your case).

Finding basic legal information:

“O.C.G.A.,” followed by a symbol (“§”) and number, refers to a specific section (“§”) in the Official Code of Georgia Annotated (O.C.G.A.). You can find the annotated Georgia Code in print at some libraries (including the Fayette County Law Library at 1 Center Drive, Fayetteville, GA). The unannotated Georgia Code is available on the Georgia General Assembly’s website at: www.legis.state.ga.us.

“USCR,” followed by a number, refers to a specific rule in the Uniform Superior Court Rules (USCR).

USCR 24.1 through 24.9 includes several rules that apply in domestic relations cases (a divorce is considered a domestic relations case). The Uniform Superior Court Rules are available on the Georgia Judicial Branch website at www.georgiacourts.org (under “Courts” and then under “Court Rules”).

II. BASIC STEPS FOR OBTAINING A DIVORCE IN THE GRIFFIN JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

Your case may require different or additional steps, so please read through the entire instructions carefully.

1. Carefully read all of these instructions at least once before filling out the forms.
2. Choose the set of forms applicable to your circumstances in section III of this document and complete them, using the instructions pertaining to each form.
3. Make three complete sets of all the papers you are going to file. Then, separate them into three packets: (1) all of the originals (to be filed in the Clerk of Court’s office for the Court) – do not staple this set together, (2) one set of copies for your spouse (called the “service copy”), and (3) one set of copies for you to keep for your records.
4. You must serve your spouse with one set of complete copies. You have three options for “serving” the documents to your spouse. You must choose only one.
  - a. Acknowledgement of Service – You know where your spouse lives and you wish to give a copy of the documents to him/her in person. Your spouse would then sign an Acknowledgement of Service Form.
  - b. Served by the Sheriff’s Office – You know where your spouse lives and you wish to pay the Sheriff’s Office to deliver a copy of the documents. (contact the respective Clerk of Courts for the service fee and accepted method of payment.) You must then complete a Sheriff’s Entry of Service. Upon completion of this form, you must pay the fee for service to the Clerk’s office and also give the clerk the Sheriff’s Entry of Service form.
  - c. By Publication – If you do not know where your spouse lives or works and the divorce packet sent by Certified Mail to the last known address of the Respondent is returned to the Clerk’s Office, you must complete the Affidavit of Due Diligence, Notice of Publication, and Order of Publication and follow the directions for each of these documents.
5. File your original, signed, and notarized set of divorce papers with the respective Clerk of Courts. There is a filing fee, contact the respective Clerk of Courts for the amount and accepted method of payment. The Clerk will provide you with your case number, the name of the Judge assigned to the case and your court date. You will enter this information in the appropriate space on all forms.
6. When filing these forms, do NOT file them as a single packet. File each form as a separate document with the court clerk.
7. After filing your original forms with the Clerk of Courts, serve or hand-deliver the Respondent a copy. If you used “By Publication” for service, follow the directions on the Notice of Publication for this step.

8. Before your hearing date, follow the directions to complete the applicable portions of the Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce and Domestic Relations Case Final Disposition Information Form.
9. Go to your hearing on the scheduled Court date and time. Bring the original copies of the partially completed Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce and Domestic Relations Case Final Disposition Information Form. Note: If you are unfamiliar with the Courts, proper attire is required. Additionally, make sure to turn your cell phone off before entering the courtroom (the Judge may hold you in contempt and assess a large fine against you if it rings in the Courtroom).
10. After your hearing and the Judge has signed your Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce, take the Final and Domestic Relations Case Final Disposition Information Form to the Clerk of Courts for filing.

III. FORMS YOU WILL NEED TO START AND COMPLETE YOUR DIVORCE

This is a checklist for your assistance. All forms “A” through “K” must be completed and filed initially for filing with the Clerk’s Office. Forms “L” and “M” must be filed if you and your spouse have a signed agreement and wish to schedule a court date as soon as possible after the 31 days from date of service. Forms “N” and “O” will be needed to take to court on the day of your hearing. Depending on your choice of service you will file either Form “P”, or Form “Q” or Forms “R”, “S” and “T” (these three go together). File each document separately with the court clerk.

DETAILED INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORMS:

Instructions For Completing Form A: Petition For Divorce

➤ Caption (Heading)

Fill in your full name as the Petitioner, and your spouse's full name as the Respondent. Do not fill in the "Civil Action File No." The clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your Petition in the Clerk's office. After completing the heading, write your full name again in the space provided just before Paragraph 1.

➤ Paragraph 1: Subject Matter Jurisdiction

*CHECK ONLY ONE BOX*

Check box "(a)" if you have been a resident of the State of Georgia for at least six (6) months immediately before filing your Petition. (It is not good enough if you used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and have returned more recently than six months ago.)

Check box "(b)" if you are not a resident of the State of Georgia, but your spouse has been living in Georgia for at least the past six (6) months. (It is not good enough if your spouse used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and has returned more recently than six months ago.)

Note: If you live in Georgia but have not lived here for a full six months, but your spouse has been living here for at least the past six months, you may still use the Petition for Divorce and file in Georgia. Just check box "(b)" and cross out the first eleven words ("I am not a resident of the State of Georgia, but"), so that the sentence is accurate.

➤ Paragraph 2: Venue

Note: The issue of venue in a divorce action is very complicated and can result in your case being defective if it is not addressed properly. Read these instructions very carefully. If your situation does not seem to fit any of the choices exactly, you should talk to a lawyer. You may not be able to file your case in the county you intend, or you may need to make very specific changes to this form. You should also talk to a lawyer if the Respondent is currently incarcerated (where a person is currently living does not always mean he/she resides there under the law).

On the first line, write your spouse's name in the space provided. Then *CHECK ONLY ONE BOX*

Check box "(a)" if the Respondent currently resides in the county you are filing in.

Check box "(b)" only if all of the following are true:

- the Respondent is not a resident of the county you are filing in but resides in Georgia;
- the two of you lived together in the county you are filing in at the time you separated;
- you still live in the county you are filing in; and
- the Respondent has moved out of the county only within the past six (6) months prior to you filing this Petition for Divorce.

Check box "(c)" if the Respondent is not a resident of county you are filing in but resides in Georgia and has acknowledged service of process and consented to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court, by completing both parts of the form that contains the Acknowledgment of Service and Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. (You must file the original signed and notarized form with the Petition for Divorce.) You must currently live in the county you are filing in to check this box.

Check box “(d)” if you live in the county you are filing in and the Respondent is not a resident of the State of Georgia, but he/she has acknowledged service of process and has consented to the jurisdiction of the Court, by completing both parts of the form that contains the Acknowledgment of Service and Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue. (You must file the original signed and notarized form with the Petition for Divorce.)

➤ Paragraph 3: Service of Process

- a. Acknowledgement of Service – You know where your spouse lives and you wish to give a copy of the documents to him/her in person. Your spouse would then sign an Acknowledgement of Service Form.
- b. Served by the Sheriff’s Office – You know where your spouse lives and you wish to pay the Sheriff’s Office to deliver a copy of the documents. (As of this writing, the fee is $50.00.) You must then complete a Sheriff’s Entry of Service. Upon completion of this form, you must pay the $50.00 for service to the Clerk’s office and also give the clerk the Sheriff’s Entry of Service form.
- c. By Publication – If you do not know where your spouse lives or works and the divorce packet sent by Certified Mail to the last known address of the Respondent is returned to the Clerk’s Office, you must complete the Affidavit of Due Diligence, Notice of Publication, and Order of Publication and follow the directions for each of these documents.

➤ Paragraph 4: Date of Marriage

*CHECK ONLY ONE BOX*

Check box “(a)” if you and the Respondent were married with a license and a ceremony, such as one by a clergyman or by a judge at the courthouse. Write the date of the marriage in the space provided.

Check box “(b)” if you and the Respondent did not have a marriage license and a ceremony, but you believe you have established a common law marriage. Under Georgia law, this generally means that you and the Respondent lived together and held yourselves out as husband and wife before January 1, 1997. Write the date you began your common law marriage on the space provided.

➤ Paragraph 5: Date of Separation

In the space provided, write the last date that you and the Respondent separated and remained separated up to the present time. Provide only one date. If you and the Respondent have separated, gotten back together, and then separated again, use the date of the most recent separation.

➤ Paragraph 6: Settlement Agreement

The Respondent and I have entered into a Settlement Agreement, which we both want to be incorporated into the Final Judgment and Decree for Divorce. The Settlement Agreement has been signed by each of us in front of a notary public, and I am filing the Settlement Agreement with the Court, together with this Petition.

➤ Paragraph 7: Child(ren)

If you have no children together and the Wife is not pregnant, choose the first box and go to Paragraph 15 (skipping 8 – 14). If you do have children together or the Wife is pregnant, choose the second box, enter the number of minor (under 18) children and list the name, sex, year of birth and person (mother, father or other) with whom each child resides.

➤ Paragraph 8: Custody/Visitation

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. An uncontested divorce means that you and your spouse agree on everything, including legal and physical custody of the children. Please select the box that reflects who you both want to have legal and physical custody.

*IMPORTANT! In any case where the court decides custody, the parents must file a Parenting Plan. A Parenting Plan sets out the details of how the parents will share parenting responsibilities after a divorce or separation. If the parents can agree they can file a join parenting plan. If the parents don't agree on all the issues, each parent can file a separate parenting plan. A standard form is available for parties to use, but Parenting Plans should be individualized to consider the unique issues in every family.

If there is any history of family violence in the relationship, the parent may need a Safety-Focused Parenting Plan. This parenting plan includes special considerations on visitation and safety where there is family violence. This plan should also be changed to meet the family's individual needs. The Parenting Plan must be in substantially the same form as provided herein this packet to comply with O.C.G.A. 19-9-1 and U.S.C.R. 24.10.

ns on visitation and safety where there is family violence. This plan should also be changed to meet the family's individual needs. The Parenting Plan must be in substantially the same form as provided herein this packet to comply with O.C.G.A. 19-9-1 and U.S.C.R. 24.10.

➤ Paragraph 9: Children's Place of Residence

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. In the first blank, enter the address (including street, city, state, and zip) where the children live now and on the second blank enter with whom they are living (Petitioner, Respondent, or name of other). If they live in different places, write each address, and indicate which children reside there and with whom. Then if the children have lived at other addresses within the last five years, list each address and with whom they lived (you, your spouse or someone else). Again, if the children were in different locations at the same time, you need to indicate to which child(ren) each address applies. If the children have lived in the same place indicated in the first blank for the last five years, write "SAME" in the line under Address.

➤ Paragraph 10: Other Custody Actions

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. Check the first box if all of the following apply:

- You have not participated as a party, witness or in any other capacity in custody litigation involving any of the minor children; AND
- You are not aware of any custody proceedings anywhere concerning any of the minor children.

Otherwise, check the second box and write down, for each proceeding, the County and State, the type of custody action, the date filed and the status (i.e., what happened with the proceeding).

➤ Paragraph 11: Other Persons with Claims to Children

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. Check the first box if no one other than you and your spouse has physical custody or custody/visitation rights to any of your minor children. If someone does have custody or visitation rights to any of your children or physical custody of them now, check the second box and list who they are and what claim they have (i.e., physical custody or visitation rights).

➤ Paragraph 12: Child Support

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. Check the first box if you AND your spouse AGREE that no child support should be paid or received. If any child support is to be paid, check the second box, and enter your employer and monthly earnings on the first and second line and your spouse's employer and monthly earnings on the third and fourth line. For monthly earnings, enter your gross pay (before taxes and withholdings). If either or both do not have a job, enter "Unemployed" in the space for Employer name. YOU MUST COMPLETE THE CHILD SUPPORT WORKSHEET. See Instructions for Completing Form H. The third box should not be applicable if your spouse signs the Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue portion of Form P.

➤ Paragraph 13: Health Insurance for Minor Children

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. Check the first box if you AND your spouse AGREE on what portion each of you will pay for health insurance and health costs beyond insurance. Note: Not providing health insurance is not an option. The third box should not be applicable if your spouse signs the Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue portion of Form N.

➤ Paragraph 14: Life Insurance on Behalf of Minor Children

Only Complete this section if you have minor children together. Check the first box if you AND your spouse AGREE that neither you nor your spouse must purchase life insurance on behalf of the children. Note: This is not about buying life insurance for the children. It is about buying a policy on you or your spouse with the children being named the beneficiary. If you or your spouse is to buy an insurance policy for the benefit of the child(ren), check the second box. Then circle which of you will pay for it (Petitioner or Respondent). Finally, enter the face value of the policy. Once again, the third box should not be applicable if your spouse signs the Consent to Personal Jurisdiction and Venue portion of Form N.

➤ Paragraph 15: Alimony:

Check only one that applies.

➤ Paragraph 16: Marital Property:

Check only one that applies.

➤ Paragraph 17: Joint or Marital Debts:

Check only one that applies.

➤ Paragraph 18: Restore Former Name

Optional: Check this box only if you want the Court to restore your former or maiden name. On the space provided, write the name you want to have restored. This case is not a name change action and cannot be used for anyone except the wife or husband in this divorce action. You cannot request your spouse's name be restored.

➤ Paragraph 19: Grounds for Divorce

This paragraph explains to the Court that the basis for your divorce is that there is no hope that you and the Respondent can save this marriage. This option is the language for grounds in most cases. It is the basis for granting a divorce when fault is not proven.

➤ Final Paragraph: Request for Relief

*CHECK THE BOXES THAT APPLY*

Check box “(a)” if you want the Court to grant you a total divorce from the Respondent.

Check box “(b)” if you want the Settlement Agreement signed by you and the Respondent to be incorporated in the Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce. Make sure you have also completed Paragraph 6 and that both parties have signed the Settlement Agreement in front of a notary public.

Check box “(c)” to allow for the relief you have requested in the Petition for Divorce.

- To finish filling out this Petition for Divorce, add the date on which you are signing it, sign your name in the space provided on the last page, write your address and a daytime telephone number where the Court staff could reach you if necessary. However, if you are living in a shelter for victims of family violence, DO NOT LIST THE ADDRESS OF THE SHELTER. To do so would violate O.C.G.A. § 19-13-23. Instead, on the space for the address, list only the name of the shelter and the state where it is located. Also, if the Respondent does not know your address or phone number and it should be kept confidential because of family violence, do not write that address or phone number here. Instead, you should write another address here, where you can be sure that you will receive any information that is mailed to you by the Court or the Respondent.

Instructions For Completing Form B: Summons

Complete and file with the Petition of Divorce. Enter the Petitioner's and Respondent's name and fill in Civil Action File Number (provided by the Clerk's office).

Instructions For Completing Form C: Verification

The Verification form must be filed with the Petition for Divorce. In the caption (heading), insert your name as the Petitioner and your spouse's name as the Respondent. Do not fill in the Civil Action Case Number. The clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your case in the Clerk's office. Insert your name in the space underneath the word “Verification,” which is the title of this document.

Before you sign this Verification, remember that you will be swearing under oath that the information you have provided in the Petition for Divorce is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. Therefore, you should re-read your Petition for Divorce one more time, from start to finish, to make sure it is all true. When your forms are ready, sign your name on the Verification in front of the notary public in the space provided, and check the box to indicate that you are the Petitioner. The notary must complete the rest of the Verification form after you sign it under oath.

Instructions For Completing Form D: Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit

The Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit should be filed with the Petition for Divorce. This document specifies your financial circumstances. You are the “Affiant.” It is important, as with all of your documents, that you be truthful about the information you are providing. Complete every space on the financial affidavit unless it is specified as optional. If a question is not applicable to your situation, put “N/A” on the line. If the amount is zero, put “0” on the line. Do not leave lines blank.

Note: Complete Section 2 of the financial affidavit, “Summary of Affiant’s Income and Needs,” after you have completed all of the other sections. You will use totals from the other pages for this summary.

Instructions For Completing Form E: Domestic Relations Case Filing Information Form

The Domestic Relations Case Filing Information Form should be filed with the Petition for Divorce. Fill in “Fayette, Spalding, Pike or Upson” as the County, your complete name as the Petitioner (including your maiden name, if applicable) and your spouse’s complete name as the Respondent. Leave blank the second lines under Petitioner and Respondent. After the title “Petitioner/Petitioner’s Attorney”, check the box for “Pro se” and leave the next line and the line after “Bar #” blank. In the large box on the left half the page, check the box for “Divorce” and the “No” box after the words “Contested,” “Child Custody Issue,” and “Child Support Issue.”

If there is no family violence, check “No” for all three questions in the “Family Violence” box. If there is, we strongly urge you to consult a lawyer.

In the “Other” box, check “no” to the first box (unless you and your spouse have gone through mediation). If you have children, you should check “yes” to the second and last two boxes and then select the box that applies to the terms of the custody you and your spouse have agreed. If you have no children, leave this portion blank.

Instructions For Completing Form F: STATE OF GEORGIA: Report of Divorce, Annulment or Dissolution of Marriage Form

The STATE OF GEORGIA Report of Divorce, Annulment or Dissolution of Marriage Form should be filed with the Petition for Divorce. Complete items 4 through 15. On item 14, you will need to write the Code section that applies to your divorce. Since you are filing because the marriage is “irretrievably broken,” write “19-5-3(13).”

Instructions For Completing Form G: Settlement Agreement and Parenting Plan

A Settlement Agreement should be filed with the Petition for Divorce. If you and your spouse have reached or can reach an agreement about all issues arising out of the marital relationship, you may use the Settlement Agreement with this packet to formalize your agreement in writing. The Settlement Agreement included herein is a sample. You and your spouse may amend any of the terms of the Settlement Agreement to match the terms to which you both agree. The Parenting Plan is required to be filed with the Settlement Agreement and all information must be completed.

Important notes about settlement agreements: Generally, if two parties execute an agreement because they want to settle all of the issues in their divorce, and it is not executed under fraud, duress, accident, or mistake, the agreement is a contract which is binding on both parties. If the agreement is considered by the Court to be a valid agreement, it may be incorporated into the Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce. The Court is not bound to accept your agreement (particularly when it comes to terms that deal with the children – child support and child custody and visitation), but if the judge is satisfied with your agreement, he or she will likely incorporate it into the final decree, binding both of you to the agreement. Therefore, once you and your spouse have executed the agreement, if you want to make any changes to it, you will both have to agree to those changes in writing, unless you can prove it is not a valid agreement.

In short, DO NOT execute the Settlement Agreement with this packet if it is incomplete, or you and your spouse have agreed to something orally that is not included in the agreement. DO contact an attorney if you have any questions at all about an agreement proposed to you by your spouse or if you are unclear about any of the terms included in it. It is STRONGLY recommended that you talk with an attorney before signing any agreement.

Additionally, the Settlement Agreement included with this packet is just one sample of an agreement you might reach with your spouse. It does not cover every possible scenario that might come up in the future between you and your spouse. If you can hire an attorney to represent you, he or she will be able to help craft an agreement that is tailored to your precise needs.

If you execute an agreement with your spouse, and later believe the agreement is not valid, you will need to contact an attorney to find out what options might be available to you.

Instructions For Completing Form H: Child Support Worksheet

Under Georgia Law you or your spouse will be required to file the worksheets completed on the “Georgia Child Support Calculator” before the court can consider any child support. The required worksheets are found on-line at the Georgia Child Support Commission’s website (worksheets must be completed on-line and printed):

<https://csconlinecalc.georgiacourts.gov>

Instructions For Completing Form I: Child Support Addendum

This form is for use at the end of your case. It is to be attached to the final order. All parts of this Addendum must be completed, and it must be attached to all final orders and judgments determining the amount of child support.

First Section: You must check one of the boxes. Check the first box if the other parent is going to sign this agreement. Check the second box if there is no agreement.

1. Gross Income – In the first space, enter the Petitioner’s gross monthly income before taxes or any deductions. In the second space, enter the Respondent’s gross monthly income before taxes or any deductions.
2. Children – Enter the number of children at issue in this case where indicated, in the first blank. Then list the names and years of birth for each of the children at issue.
3. Attachments – Attach your completed Child Support Worksheet.
4. Child Support Amount – In the first space, enter the name of the person who will be paying child support (You can use the terms “Petitioner”, “Respondent”, another clear designation or the person’s full name.) In the second space enter the name of the person who will be receiving the child support. In third space enter the monthly amount of child support that will be paid followed by the date the payments will start.

5. Duration of Child Support - You must check one of the paragraphs. Paragraph (a) would be the most common and standard option in most cases.
6. Split Parenting - A split parenting situation occurs when the parents have two or more children together, where at least one of the children spends more than 50% of the time with one parent, and at least one of the children spends more than 50% of the time with the other parent.

You must check and complete one of the paragraphs.

Check (a) if this case does not involve Split Parenting. This is the most common option.

Check (b) if this is a Split Parenting case. Separate Child Support Worksheets have been filed for the children living with the Petitioner and for the children living with the Respondent, and a Child Support Order Addendum has been entered in this action for each parent. Enter the amount of each parent’s obligation.

Note: You should consult with an attorney if you have a split parenting arrangement to make sure you are calculating the child support and completing the forms correctly.

To complete (b), you must check and complete one of the sub-paragraphs: (1), (2) or (3).

Check (1) to select a Net Payment – this means the parent with the higher amount to pay will pay only the difference between the two amounts. Enter the amount to be paid and who will be getting the payments.

In this form you will explain to the Court about the steps you took to try to find the Respondent. You must make reasonable efforts to find the Respondent before you fill out the Affidavit form. If you know you must use service by publication when you prepare your Petition for Divorce, then you should prepare the three listed forms at that time (Affidavit of Diligent Search Form, Notice of Publication Form and Order of Publication Form). However, if you have already filed your divorce case, and have tried to complete service by a different method, you can still request the Court's permission to serve by publication.

If the Court grants permission, the Judge will sign the Order of Publication. You must pay the cost of publication (request the fee from the Clerk's Office). Then, the Notice of Publication will be published in the county's official legal newspaper four times (usually four weeks in a row). The Notice gives the Respondent a chance to file an Answer, if she or he wants to contest the case.

After it has been published all four times, you should receive an Affidavit of Publication from the newspaper, stating that publication is complete. You must bring this Affidavit of Publication with you to your hearing, to prove that service by publication has been completed.

CHILD SUPPORT ADDENDUM

Instructions: All parts of this Addendum must be completed, and it must be attached to all final orders and judgments determining the amount of child support. However, it is not required for orders on contempt motions.

[You must check one of the following boxes.]

- ( ) The parties have agreed to the terms of this order and this information has been furnished by both parties to meet the requirements of OCGA §19-6-15. The parties agree on the terms of the order and affirm the accuracy of the information provided, as shown by their signatures at the end of this addendum.
- ( ) This addendum includes findings of fact and conclusions of law and fact made by the Court, in compliance with OCGA §19-6-15.

Application of Child Support Guidelines. The statutory requirements of OCGA §19-6-15 have been applied in reaching the amount of child support provided under the final order in this action. The specifics are as follows:

1. Gross Income - The Father's gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____ ; the Mother's gross monthly income is $ _____ (before taxes).
2. Number of Children - The number of children for whom support is being provided under this order is _____ .

3. Attachments - The Child Support Worksheet and Schedule E are attached and made a part of this addendum, along with any other applicable schedules.

4. Child Support Amount - The _____ shall pay to the _____, for the support of the minor children, the sum of _____ Dollars ($ _____) per month, beginning on _____, 20 ____.

5. Duration of Child Support

( ) (a) Beyond Age 18 for High School - The child support shall continue monthly thereafter until each child reaches the age of eighteen, dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated; provided that if a child becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a fulltime basis, then the child support shall continue for the child until the child has graduated from secondary school or reaches twenty years of age, whichever occurs first.

( ) (b) Stops at Age 18 - The child support shall continue monthly thereafter until each child reaches the age of eighteen, dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated.

( ) (c) Until Further Order - This is not a final order, so child support shall continue until further order of this Court.

( ) (d) Until Specific Date - The child support shall continue monthly thereafter until _____.

6. Split Parenting – A split parenting situation occurs when the parents have two or more children together, where at least one of the children spends more than 50% of the time with one parent, and at least one of the children spends more than 50% of the time with the other parent.

( ) (a) Not Split Parenting Case - This case does not involve Split Parenting.

( ) (b) Split Parenting Case – This is a Split Parenting Case. Separate Child Support Worksheets have been filed for the children living with the Mother and for the children living with the Father, and a Child Support Addendum has been entered on this action for each parent. At this time, Mother is obligated to pay the sum of $_____ per month to the Father, and the Father is obligated to pay the sum of $_____ per month to the Mother.

[To complete (b), you must check & complete only one of the following sub paragraphs: (1), (2) or (3)]

( ) 1. Net Payment - For so long as these amounts remain in effect, the _____ shall pay only the difference between the two amounts

(which is $ _____) to the _____, who shall not be required to Pay the child support obligation to the other parent.

( ) 2. Zero Payment - The parents' child support obligations are equal. For so long as the amounts remain equal, neither parent shall pay any child support payment to the other parent.

( ) 3. Full Payment From Each – Each parent shall pay the full amount of his or her child support obligation to the other.

7. Deviation from Presumptive Amount

( ) (a) No Deviation - It has been determined that none of the Deviations allowed under OCGA §19-6-15, applies in this case. The amount of support in Paragraph 4 above is the Presumptive Amount of Child Support shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet.

( ) (b) Parenting Time Deviation Only– It has been determined that the “Parenting Time” Deviation allowed under O.C.G.A. ' 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Child Support Worksheet and Schedule E. The amount of support in Paragraph 4 above is the Final Child Support Amount shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet.

( ) (c) Deviation - It has been determined that one or more of the Deviations allowed under OCGA §19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The Presumptive Amount of Child Support that would have been required under OCGA §19-6-15 if the deviations had not been applied is $ _____ per month, as shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet. The attached Schedule E explains the reasons for the deviation, how the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support, and how the best interest of the children who are subject to this child support determination is served by deviation from the presumptive amount of child support.

8. Health, Dental & Vision Insurance for Children

[You must check & complete all parts of only one of the following paragraphs, (a) or (b).]

( ) (a) Insurance Available - The following insurance for the children involved in this action is available at a reasonable cost to the _____ through that parent's employer or the PeachCare program:

( ) Health (medical, mental health and hospitalization) ( ) Dental ( ) Vision
So long as it remains available to that parent, the _____ shall maintain the types of insurance checked above for the benefit of the minor children, until each child reaches the age of eighteen, dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated; except that if a child becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a full-time basis, then the insurance shall be continued for the child until the child has graduated from secondary school or reaches twenty years of age, whichever occurs first.

(1) The parent who maintains the insurance shall provide the other parent with an insurance identification card or such other acceptable proof of insurance coverage and shall cooperate with the other parent in submitting claims under the policy.

(2) All money received by one of the parties for claims processed under the insurance policy shall be paid within five (5) days after the party receives the money, to the other party (if that other party paid the applicable health care service provider) or to the applicable health care provider (if the provider has not been paid by one of the parties).

- ( ) (b) Insurance Not Available - Insurance (other than Medicaid) is not available at this time to either party at a reasonable cost. If health insurance for the children later becomes available to the parent who is required to pay child support for these children, then that parent must obtain the following types of insurance, unless it is then being provided by the other parent:
( ) Health (medical, mental health and hospitalization) ( ) Dental ( ) Vision.

When insurance has been obtained by either party, Paragraphs 7 (a)(1) and (2) shall apply.

9. Uninsured Health Care Expenses - The _____ shall pay _____% and the _____ shall pay _____% of all expenses incurred for the children's health care (including medical, dental, mental health, hospital and vision care) that are not covered by insurance. The party who incurs a health care expense for one of the children shall provide verification of the amount to the other party. That other party shall reimburse the incurring party (or pay the health care provider directly) for the appropriate percentage of the expense, within fifteen (15) days after receiving the verification of a particular health care expense.

10. Parenting Time Amounts - The approximate number of days of parenting time per year according to the visitation order is _____ days for the Father and _____ days for the Mother.

11. Social Security Benefits

[You must check & complete only one of the following paragraphs.]

- ( ) (a) Not Received - The children do not receive Title II Social Security benefits under the account of the parent ordered to pay child support.
- ( ) (b) Received - The children receive Title II Social Security benefits under the account of the parent ordered to pay child support. The benefits received by the children shall be counted as child support payments and shall be applied against the final child support order to be paid by that parent.

(1) If the amount of benefits received is less than the amount of support ordered, the obligor shall pay the amount exceeding the Social Security benefit.

(2) If the amount of benefits received is equal to or more than the amount of support ordered, the obligor's responsibility is met and no further support shall be paid.

(3) Any Title II benefits received for the children's benefit shall be retained by the custodial parent or nonparent custodian for the children's benefit, and it shall not be used as a reason for decreasing the final child support order or reducing arrearages.

12. Modification [You must check & complete only one of the following paragraphs.]

( ) (a) Not Modification Action - This is an initial determination of child support, not a modification action.

( ) (b) Support Not Modified - This action is a modification action, but the order does not modify the amount of child support that was previously ordered for these children. The date of the initial support order concerning this child support case was:

( ) (c) Support Amount Modified - The order modifies the amount of child support that was previously ordered for these children. The basis for the modification is:

- ( ) (1) Substantial change in the income and financial status of the Father;
- ( ) (2) Substantial change in the income and financial status of the Mother;
- ( ) (3) Substantial change in the needs of the Children;
- ( ) (4) The noncustodial parent failed to exercise visitation provided under the prior order;
- ( ) (5) The noncustodial parent has exercised more visitation than was provided in the prior order.

The date of the initial support order concerning this child support case was:

13. Continuing Garnishment for Child Support - Whenever, in violation of the terms of the order, there shall have been a failure to make the support payments, so that the amount unpaid is equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may also be collected by the process of continuing garnishment for support.

14. Income Deduction Order

[You must check & complete only one of the following paragraphs: (a), (b) or (c).]

( ) (a) An Income Deduction Order shall be entered by the Court, under OCGA § 19-6-32, for payment of the child support and alimony (if any) provided. The Income Deduction Order shall take effect:

[To finish (a), you must check either (1) or (2). Do not check both.]

( ) (1) immediately upon entry by the Court.

( ) (2) upon accrual of a delinquency equal to one month's support. The Income Deduction Order may be enforced by serving a "Notice of Delinquency," as provided in OCGA §19-6-32 (f).

( ) (b) The parties agree that an Income Deduction Order is not immediately necessary.

( ) (c) The Court finds that there is good cause not to require income deduction, having determined that income deduction will not serve the children's best interests and that there has been sufficient proof of timely payment of any previously ordered support.

Parties' Consent - We knowingly and voluntarily agree on the terms of this order. Each of us affirms that the information we have provided in this Addendum is true and correct.

The Settlement Agreement between the parties, filed with this Court on _____ is incorporated by reference and made a part of this Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce. Each party is ORDERED and directed to comply with the terms and conditions therein.

I. CUSTODY

(You must check and complete either (a) or (b). Do not check both (a) and (b). If you want a custody arrangement that is not shown here, you should consult an attorney for appropriate language in place of this section.)

- (a) The _____ shall have sole legal and physical custody of the children. The _____ shall have visitation with the minor children according to the Parenting Plan entered by this Court in this case.
- (b) The Petitioner and Respondent shall have joint legal custody of the minor children. The _____ shall have primary physical custody and the _____ shall have secondary physical custody. The periods of visitation for the parent having secondary physical custody are set forth in the Parenting Plan entered by this Court.

As joint legal custodians, the parties shall consult each other and try to reach a joint decision on all major decisions concerning the children's education, health care, extracurricular activities and religious upbringing. However, if the parties are not able to reach a joint decision concerning one of these major issues, then the parent with primary physical custody shall make the final decision on all issues. The parent with primary physical custody.

In the event of any change of residence on the part of either party herein so long as the custody provisions concerning the minor children are in effect, said party changing his or her residence shall notify the other party in writing at least thirty (30) days in advance of the intent to change residence and of the location of the new residence and shall furnish to him or her the complete new address and, as soon as determined, the new telephone at the new residence.

Absent agreement to limitations or court ordered limitations, pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 19-9-1-(b)(1)(D), both parents are entitled to access to all of the child's records and information, including, but not limited to, education, health, extracurricular activities, and religious communications. Designation as a non-custodial parent does not affect a parent's right to equal access to these records. The residence of the parent with primary physical custody shall be the legal residence of the minor children for purposes of school enrollment.

II. CHILD SUPPORT

(Circle the appropriate person where indicated, fill in the child(ren)'s names and birth years where indicated, and fill in the numbers from the Child Support Worksheet where indicated.)

The statutory requirements of O.C.G.A. §19-6-15 et seq. have been applied in reaching the amount of child support to be paid in this case. For purposes of determining child support, the Court finds:

1. Child support is being determined for _____ child(ren), to wit: (list each child by their legal name and their birth year) _____

2. (Circle the parent with primary physical custody). For purposes of child support, the Petitioner / Respondent is deemed the Custodial Parent; and the Petitioner/ Respondent is the Non-Custodial parent.

3. The Gross Income of the Petitioner is $ _____ per month.

4. The Gross Income of the Respondent is $ _____ per month.

5. The total Basic Child Support Obligation ("BCSO") in this case, as provided in the statutory suggested guidelines, is _____ Dollars ($ _____), and, based on the current incomes, the pro rata shares of such BCSO are _____% for the Father and _____% for the Mother. The presumptive amount of child support as indicated by the Child Support Worksheet to be paid by the Husband after adjustments taking into account the deviations contained therein, is _____ and no cents ($ _____), per month.

A. Child Support Payments.

Taking into consideration all the applicable data from the Child Support Worksheet, Petitioner / Respondent shall pay to Petitioner / Respondent as Child Support for the support and maintenance of the Child, the sum of _____ Dollars ($ _____) per month, beginning with the 1st day of the calendar month immediately following the execution of this order, and continuing thereafter to be paid on the 1st of each month.

These payments will continue until the child dies, marries, reaches the age of eighteen years, enters the armed services or becomes self-supporting, whichever event first occurs. However, if the Child reaches the age of eighteen prior to graduation from high school, Petitioner will continue to pay child support for such Child as long as he is continuously enrolled in high school and not married or otherwise emancipated, until his high school graduation, but in no event beyond the child's reaching the age of twenty (20) years.

Petitioner / Respondent's child support obligation shall be subject to change, upon proper petition for a modification, in the event of a material change of circumstances with respect to the wealth or incomes of the parties, as provided by law.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32, the Court finds that an immediate Income Deduction Order for Award of Child Support is not warranted. However, pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 19-6-31, 32 & 33, the recipient of child support has the express right, without notice to either party, at the time this Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce is entered or at anytime thereafter, to submit a separate Income Deduction Order for Award of Child Support to the Court for immediate entry.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 19-6-31, 32 & 33, whenever in violation of the terms of this Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce, there shall have been a failure to make the support payments due hereunder so that the amount unpaid is equal or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may be collected by the process of continuing garnishment for support and/or Income Deduction Order for Award of Child Support.

B. Medical and Dental Coverage for Child.

(You must check and complete either (a) or (b.) Do not check both (a) and (b).)

- (a) Insurance is not available to either party at a reasonable cost. If health insurance for the child(ren) later becomes available to the parent who is required to pay child support, then that parent must obtain the insurance unless it is then being provided by the other parent.

- (b) The Petitioner / Respondent shall maintain and pay the premiums for medical, dental and hospitalization insurance coverage for the benefit of the minor child(ren), until each child reaches the age of eighteen, dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated, except that if a child becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a full-time basis, then the insurance shall continue for the child until the child has graduated from secondary school or reach twenty years of age, whichever occurs first.

As additional child support, Petitioner shall pay _____ % and Respondent shall pay _____ % of all uninsured charges and co-pays for any medical, dental, drug, clinic, hospital, and outpatient charges incurred for the benefit of the child(ren). All bills for charges incurred or paid for either party for uncovered expenses for the Child shall be forwarded to the other party within thirty (30) days. The reimbursing party shall reimburse such expense to the paying party his/her share no later than thirty (30) days of receipt of the bill or proof of payment.

III. PROPERTY DIVISION

The parties have entered into a Settlement Agreement dividing all of their marital property and their marital debts. That Settlement Agreement has been incorporated by reference and made a part of this Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce. Each party is ORDERED and directed to comply with the terms and conditions therein concerning the division of property and debts.

VI. ALIMONY

Neither party shall be pay alimony to the other party.

V. RESTORATION OF MAIDEN NAME

Petitioner / Respondent shall be restored to her former name, to wit: _____
